

Brown's Castle (contd)

The ruins are of a rectangular form, the present height of the walls is about 25 feet, a few steps of a spiral stair cove remain, and the walls are about five feet thick.

Rathmorrel Castle ruins

-- Timothy Driscoll

25

See F.L.

-- J.O.D.

See F.L.

-- J.O.D.

Situated in the townland of Rathmorrel in the parish of Killoory and barony of Clansaurice.

A rectangular building about 20 feet of the walls are standing and in fragments, there is a large breach in the south wall, this castle is said to be erected by the D Cantilton family.

Derryrabeg

-- Plan

25

J.O.D.

Doire rata beag, oak wood of the fort. (little).

See next p

Bounded North by mouth of the Shannon, E. by Derrymore, W. by Knoppoge.

A townland.

Rathmorrel House

-- Timothy Driscoll

26

See F.L.

-- J.O.D.

Situated in the townland of Rathmorrel, in the parish of Killoory.

The residence of Timothy Driscoll, it is built against the North wall of Rathmorrel Castle ruins. It is a rectangular building one story high and thached. It was built by the D Cantillon family.

Derryramore (9)

-- Plan

26

J.O.D.

Sea beg.

Bounded North by mouth of the Shannon, W. by Derryrabeg, S. by Rattoo ph.

A townland.

Tobar Lúraidhe (14)

-- Rev Eugene Mc Carhty

27

Tobar Lúraig, St Lurech's well.