

Killeen Church (contd)

Situated in the townland of Killeen in the parish of Killoory.

Causeway Village (15) -- Local 36

Cean a tochair , Head of the causeway.

Called in Irish "Kantogher". -- J.C.D.
Causeway Village.

Situated in the townland of Drumkeen West in the parish of Killoory.

This Village consists of a few houses. Some of which are in good repair, the following are the different callings 4 Publicans , one Baker, 4 Shoemakers, 2 Smiths, 2 weavers, 6 Carpenters, 2 Tailors and one pavier. There is a Dispensary which is daily attended. There are four fairs annually. This is a post town.

Causeway Roman Catholic Chapel -- Timothy O'Connor 37

Carraig acife , Eva's rock.

Carrigeeve -- J.C.D.

Situated in the townland of Drumkeen West, parish of Killoory.

This Chapel was erected about 60 years ago by the Rev Nicholas It is a spacious building and can accommodate 800 persons.

Corrigeeve or Arago Rock -- Plan 37

In the sea off Meenoghave townland. 8.

River Cashen -- Local 38

Casan Ciarraige , path of Kerry.

Cassaun is the Irish name but the English authorities are all for Cashen. J.C.D.

The Cosheene's Mouth -- Vallancey's map

Part of this river is situated on the North of the parish of Killoory which separates it from the parish of Killahinny it joins the Shannon here.

Illaunamack -- Plan 38

Cilean na muc , island of the pigs.

Illaunamuck -- J.C.D.

In the sea. 8.