

Incheens (84)

-- B. S.

49

Na h-insiniúe , the little holms, straths or islands.

Incheens

-- J.O.D.

70

-- Inhabitants

Situated in the S. W. extreme point of the parish, and is bounded S, and W, by the parishes of Kenmare and Knockaun, N, by the townlands of Derrycunashy and Gurtroca and E, by Illauns.

This townland contains acres all mountain, Lord's Flag is in the boundary on the South side at the meeting of the parish of Kenmare and parish of Knockaun, the proprietor the Earl of Kenmare.

Illauns (84)

-- B.S.

50

Ollán , a small stone altar or penitential station. Not Illaun , an island.

Ullauns

-- J.O.D.

Illane

-- Barony map

do

-- Larkin's Co map 1814

Illauns

-- Inhabitants

Situated in the S.W. extreme point of the parish, and is bounded S, by the parish of Kenmare, W, by the parish of Knockaun N, by the townland of Gurtroca and E, by Poulagour.

This townland contains acres all mountain Red Trout Lake is in the boundary in the S. side at the meeting of the parishes Kenmare and Kilgarvan. The proprietor the Earl of Kenmare.

Loughoolig

-- Plan

57

Glannacappul Fort

-- Plan

57

Glann a capuil , glen or valley of the horse.

Loughoolig

-- J.O.D.

Lake of the river Duileach.

Glennacappul fort

-- J.O.D.

Situated in the townland of Knockaninane.
