

Cahernaan House (contd)

miles S. of the town of Killarney.

This House the seat of Richmond Herbert Esqr was built in 1760 by Arthur Herbert Esqr at the expense of £1200. It is much shaded with trees.

Castlelough Castle (66)

-- Inhabitants

40

Caisleán a loca , castle of the lake.

See T. Le

-- J.O.D.

Castle Lough ruins

-- Smith's History page 144

Situated in the S.W. end of the townland of Castlelough and surrounded on the East, West and South by Turk Lake and Accessible by a Causeway only.

There is but little vestiges of the ruins of this castle to be found. It was destroyed by General Ludlow in 1641. There are handsome walks and flowers now in the place where it stood and resembles in some measure a small handsome pleasure ground.

Cloghereen

-- B.S.

40

Cloitirín , a stony place.

Clohereen

-- J.O.D.

Cloghereen

-- Inhabitants

Situated in the North end of the townland of Drummyrorke and 3 miles South of this town of Killarney.

This is a small village consisting of 4 houses only, the principal of which is the Hotel which is spacious, 2 story high and handsomely built.

Southhill (66)

-- Inhabitants

41

J.O.D.

Orthog Letter

Situated in the centre of the townland of Coolelogher.

This house was built by John Leahy Esqr in 1810 at the expense of £500. It is 2 story high.

Flesk Mill

-- (Inhabitants

41

J.O.D.

(Orthog Letter

Situated in the North end of the townland of Coolelogher and about 4 chains South of the River Flesk.

This mill the property of John Leahy Esqr was built in 1824. It is a flour mill 4 story high and value to £1000.