

Lougherhagh

-- B. S.

18

Luaicair loe , rushy lake.

Another authority should be procured for this.

Situated in the South central boundary of the townland of Cools and at the three townlandpoints , viz. Cools, Gurtárummakeery, (and Mangerton in the parish of Kilgarvan).

This lake is in the Poulacoppul or (horse glen) and on the S. side there is a precipice about 16 chains in length and angle of elevation about 30 degrees and distance to the summit of Mangerton N. about 30 chains.

Loughmanagh

-- B. S.

19

Loe meadonach , middle lough.

Loughmanagh
do

J.O.D.

-- Barony map
-- Larkin's Co map 1814

Situated in the S.E. extreme point of the boundary of the townland of Cools.

This lake is in Poulacoppul (or horse glen) there is a precipice on the South side which makes an angle of elevation of about 45 degrees and distance about 12 chains, to a spectator placed on the summit of Lougherlough the apparent distance between the two lakes would be about 6 chains, yet by actual measurement it is 2100 links.

Loughaun Lake (84)

-- B. S.

19

Lake of the crows

-- J.O.D.

Situated in the centre of the townland of Poulagouer and N.W. of Triangle lake.

Nothing remarkable in this lake.

Red Trout Lake (84)

-- B. S.

20

Loe na m-breac dearg , lake of the red trouts.

Loughnabrackderg
Loughnabrickdarrig
do
do

-- J.O.D.
-- Barony map
-- Larkin's Co map 1814
-- Inhabitants

Situated in the S.E. boundary of the townland of Illauns and at the meeting of the parish of Kilgarvan.

There is a small stream running from the West side of this lake and empties itself in the upper lake of Killarney. It is a small lake and derives its name from that species of Red trout which has been