

Index (contd)

| | |
|-----------------|----|
| Pirees Bridge | 33 |
| Miang Bridge | 34 |
| Police Station | 35 |
| River Main | 34 |
| Lisskeeltie | 35 |
| National School | 35 |
| Keelties | 36 |

Kilnanare Ph -- B. S. 2

Cill na n-aen , church of the oves. (Irish form)

| | |
|------------|------------------------------|
| Kilnanare | -- J.O.D. |
| Killanear | -- Smith's Engraved map 1756 |
| Killeneear | -- Smith's history of 1756 |
| Kilune | -- Vallancey's map |

The parish of Kilnanare, is bounded on the North by the parishes of Molahiv and Kiltalla, from which it is separated by the river Main, on the South by Kilbonnan, on the West by Kilcoleman, and on the East by the parishes of Aglish, and Molahiv.

A R P A R P
 Contains 4.0.37 of water and 5726: G: 18 of arable and pasture making in the whole A.5730: R. 1: P.15: the content of the parish. There are several good roads through the parish leading to the principal towns, Tralee, Killarney, Milltown, etc. a Police Station National School and Houses interspersed. Agent.-Lord Kenmare's estate.- Christr Galway Esqr Killarney.

Clounmeelan (47,48) -- B. S. Sketch 3

Clusin maolain , Moylan's lawn or meadow.

| | |
|--------------|--------------------|
| Cloonmealane | -- J.O.D. |
| Clunemeolane | -- Vallancey's map |

Northern part of the parish.

Bounded on the North by Ballyfinnaan Cunnagar and Roxborough, On the West by Drumreeagh, on the South by Tralagh, on the South by Tralagh and on the East by Gurtnagloagh. Ballyfinnaan, Cunnagar, and Roxborough are in the parish of Molahiv.

Is the property of Lord Kenmare Killarney. Agent Christopher Galway Esqr Killarney. Population 150. County Cess £12 per annum. Contains A.1: R.3: P.19: of water ,and 262: 2: 9: of arable land, road from Killarney to Tralee is on the East side and forms part of the Southern boundary, West of which lies Cloonmeelan Castle and Cloonmeelan Fort, the centre of Main river forms the Northern boundary, there are several houses and quarries interspersed.