

Knocknamuckala (contd)

Bounded on the North by Kilnanare, and Longfield, on the West by Keelties, on the South by Shrone ph of Aglish and on the East by Gurtromarlegn.

Is the property of Lord Kenmare Killarney, population 150, County Cess 24 lls 6d contains A.323; R.3; P.21; of arable land bounded on the South by Shrone townland in Kilbonan ph. There are two forts on this townland one in the Southern part called Lisscapul the other in the Northern part called Lissamuckala, or Parkatubber.

Keelties

-- B. S. Sketch

14

Cacilte , recte coillte, woods.

Keelties

-- J.O.D.

Keelties

-- Barony map

Keelties

-- Larkin's Co map 1814

Southern part of the ph.

Bounded on the North by Ballybrack and Kilnanare, on the West by Lecarhee, on the South by Rockfield Middle and Rockfield East, and on the East by Knocknamuckala.

Is the property of Lord Kenmare Killarney, population 100, county cess 29 lbs, contains A.406; R.2; P.35; with the exception of a small portion of bog in the Southern part of the townland is all arable land. There is a fort called after the townland and close to the Western boundary, there is another called Lisskeeltie.

Lecarhee (47)

-- B. S. Sketch

15

Leat-cestraim, half quarter.

Mailecarrow in all counties.

Lecarhee

-- J.O.D.

Leaghcahirownyghneneny )

Leaghcarrowcloynycruhen)

-- Inq. Car I.

Leaghkearane

-- Vallancey's map

Southern part of the ph.

Bounded on the North by Ballybrack, on the West by Ardawanig, on the South by Lisheenashingaun, and Laharran and on the East by Keelties.

Is the property of Lord Kenmare Killarney, population 130, county cess 15, containing A.327; R.1; P.6; of arable land including a small portion of bog on South. There is an orchard in the Eastern part and a fort very near the middle called Lisscarhen, West of which lies another fort called Lisscarantrompa.