

Culegh West (contd)

Bounded on the North by Lough Caragh, on the West by Gurtnageunbeg, on the South by Gurtnageunbeg and Ahaan and on the East by Culegh East also on the South by Currafleugh.

R. Mc Gillicuddy Esq proprietor Whitefield. Contains being all mountain with several loughs, Caragh lake forming the North and Western boundary, Loughbrackderrig on the Southern boundary, Loughnakirka on the Eastern part. Several portions of xxx arable on the North.

Shannacashel (72) on plan-7 B. S. Sketch map

33

Sean caiseal, old cashel or stone fort.

Shanacashel
Shanacastle

-- J.O'D.
-- Boreny map

North of the parish.

Bounded on the North by Gurtrillig and Ahaan, on the West by Drumstaba and Lyrauns, on the South by Gurtamaleen West and Gurtamaleen East and on the East by Coomletter, bounded on the West by Lyrauns upper and Lyrauns lower.

R. Mc Gillicuddy Esq proprietor Whitefield, contains the greater part being rocky pasture and bog interspersed with portions of arable, having Caraghbeg river forming the Southern boundary. There is a good road through the middle of the townland.

Shrenahiree on plan 14

-- B. S. Sketch map

34

Srón na h-airíge, nose of the oireach.

Shrenahiree
Srenacree
Srenacree
Sronhyrry

-- J.O'D.
-- Boreny map
-- Larkin's Co map 1814
-- Inq. temp. Jac I.
-- This townland has been divided into Shrenahireemere and Shrenahireebeg since the annexed description was written see separate description of each from S. map in B. 1.101. P. 33,34.

South of the parish.

Bounded on the North by Drumdragh, Glounmakee and Keeass, on the West by Gurraun Keeunknahaddaba and Clughera, on the South by Derrynablaka, in the parish of Templene, and on the East by Drumtheewakeen Drumdragh.

Denis Mahony Esq proprietor Dromore (near Kenmare) contains. See Book 1. 101. page 33, 34.