

Glenbrohaun Ph. -- Sketch Map 1

GLEAN BRUAÓÁIN, Bruachan's Glen. J.O'D.

Glenbrohaun -- J.O'D.
 Glinbrohane -- County Book
 Glenbrohaun -- T.T. Adams Esq. Aughnagurrah
 Glenbrohaun -- Barony Maps

Glenbrohaun Ph. - on two plans.

Bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Knocklong, on the W. by the Ph. of Balygrennan, on the E. by the Ph. of Galbally and Ph. Ballylanders, and on the S. by the Phs. of Kilfinnan & Darra.

Contains 6111 a. 1 r. 31 p. Statute measure. The Parish is well cultivated, having portions of bog intermixed but is mostly of arable and pasture, no mountain but SMe veragh which is in the Southern part. The Morning Star River forms the E. By. There are several Roads, old Forts, Grave yards & Church Ruins interspersed.

Annagurra -- Sketch Map 2

ÁT NA G-CURAD, ford of the heroes.

ÁT, a ford has been Augh in Leinster, but it must be made Ah or Agh here.

Ahnagurra -- J.O'D.
 Aughnagurrah -- T.T. Adams Esq.
 Aith na Genarrath -- Wm. Lyons, An Irish Historian.
 Ahnagurree -- Charles O'Bryan, Hassy Griston East.
 Ahnagurrah -- Thos. Travers Adams Esq. by letter dated 25th. Nov. 40.

S.E. of the Ph. Bounded on the N. by Griston East & Ballynalacken, on the E. by Glanahaglish & Cullaen North, on the W. by Griston West, & on the S. by Kilgorriv.

Is the property of Thos. T. Adams, Annagurra. Contains 398 a. 1 r. 34 p. Statute measure, the whole is arable land with the exception of a small portion of Bog East of the Townland, N. part near the boundary there is a Fort, and a road bearing E. & W. there are several neat